MORE than a quarter of a century has elapsed since the publication of a complete Catalogue of the Library; and many thousand volumes have, in the interval, been placed upon its shelves. The need of a new Catalogue has in consequence been long felt, and the Committee, under the sanction of a General Meeting, have undertaken the preparation of one, including all the works in the Library at the end of the year 1869.

After much consideration, it has been determined to depart from the former Classified arrangement and to adopt an Alphabetical one, in which every book is entered under the Author's name where it is known, and, where it is not known, under the most expressive word of the title. This Catalogue is followed by an Alphabetical Index, based on the subject matters of the books, in which reference is made to the entries in the Catalogue by words printed in Italics. The object kept in view in forming this Index has not been to bring together all books belonging to the same class, but to give the Author's own description of his work, by entering it under the most distinctive word, or words, in the title.

Some few general headings have been adopted, such as "Novels" (which includes all Tales, Romances, and other works of Fiction), "Periodicals" (which brings together all Magazines, Reviews, Journals, &c.), "Plays," "Poems," "Poetry," "Sermons," &c.

The compilation of the Catalogue has been the work of Mr. Quinton, our excellent Librarian. His painstaking and indefatigable labour in the execution has been far greater than any one who is not well acquainted with the nature of such work can form any conception of. Day by day, week by week, month by month, and even year by year, has he devoted all the leisure left by his regular duties to the careful preparation of this Catalogue and Index. The Committee feel that a deep debt is owing to him from every member of the Institution, and they desire to express on behalf of the members their full appreciation of the excellence of his work, and their thanks for the skill and diligence with which he has executed it.

Every proof-sheet as it came from the press was thoroughly examined by the Rev. J. C. Rust, M.A., Fellow of Pembroke College, Cambridge. Each entry was carefully considered and many useful suggestions were made by him. He has thus greatly contributed to the perfectness of the Catalogue. For much valuable time freely given, for trouble often and readily incurred, for the advantage of his learning and knowledge of books, and for the excellent judgment exercised by him, the Committee desire to tender to Mr. Rust, on behalf of the members of the Institution, their most grateful thanks.

They place the Catalogue—the result of so much good labour—in the hands of the Members, with the confident expectation that it will enable them to avail themselves of the full benefits of the Institution, and that the more they use it the more they will value the great services that have been rendered to them by Mr. Rust and Mr. Quinton.

WM. CUFAUDE DAVIE,

Chairman of the Committee.

Any Subscriber who wishes to have his name entered, must give to the Librarian a written notice to that effect, signed with his name, for each Book required; and the order in which the names are to be entered shall be determined by lot, in the presence of the Chairman, or some other Member of the Committee.

9.—The Librarian shall be authorized, on the delivery of certain Works of particular value, selected by the Committee, to require, of the Member receiving them, a promissory note for their return entire and uninjured. 14.—The Daily Fine for the undue detention of Books shall be 3d. for an Octavo or Duodecimo, and 6d. for a Quarto or Folio. The day on which the Books are delivered out, the day on which they are returned, and the Sundays which may intervene, shall not be calculated in the number of days allowed for reading.

15.—Adequate Fines shall be imposed by the Committee, on all who shall deface or otherwise injure the Books of the Institution; provided such Fines never exceeded the value of the Books so damaged. The power of mitigating the Penalties incurred by such offences shall rest with the Committee.
